THE TRIBENE for 1861

PROSPECTUS.

THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE is now in its XXth Volume.

During the past year, THE TRIBUNE has been obliged to devote quite a large properties of its space to Politics, but we shall be a part of the past year. orth be able to limit our space devoted to Political discussion, and devote most of our columns to subjects of less intense but more shiding, interest. Among these, we mean to pay es

1.-EDUCATION. The whole subject of Education, both Popular and General, will be discussed in our columns throughout the year 1861, and we hope to enlist in that discussion some of the profoundest thinkers and the ablest instructors in our country. It is at once our hope and our resolve that the cause of Education shall re-ceive an impetus from the exertions of THE TRIBUNE in its behalf during the year 1961.

II.-AGRICULTURE. II.—AGRICULTURE.

We have been compelled to restrict our elucidations of this great interest throughout 1889, and shall endeavor to atome therefor in 1861. Whatever discovery, deduction, demonstration, is calculated to render the reward of labor devoted to cultivation more ample or more certain, shall receive prompt and full at-

III.-MANUFACTURES, &c. We hall every invention or enterprise whereby American Capital and Labor are attracted to and advantageously employed in any department of Manufacturing or Mechanical Industry as a real contribution to the Public Weel, insuring ampler, steadler, more convenient, more remunerating markets to the Farmer, with fuller employment and better wages to the Laborer. The with fuller employment and better wages to the hadder. The Progress of Mining, Iron-making, Steel-making, Cioth-weaving, &c., &c., in our country, and the world, shall be watched and reported by us with an earnest and active sympathy.

IV.—FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

IV.—FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

We employ the best correspondents in London, Parls, Turin, Berlin, and other European capitals, to transmit us early and accurate advices of the great changes there attently but certainly preparing. In spite of the pressure of Domestic Politics, our news from the Old World is now varied and ample; but we shall have to render it more perfect during the eventful year just before us.

V.—HOME NEWS.

We employ regular paid correspondents in Californis, at the Isthmus of Darien, in the Rocky Mountain Gold Region, and wherever else they seem requisite. From the more accessible portions of our own country, we derive our information mainly from the country of the country. V .- HOME NEWS. from the multifarious correspondents of the Associated Pres from our exchanges, and the occasional letters of intelligent from our exchanges, and the occasional letters of intelligent friends. We aim to print the cheapest general newspaper, with the fullest and most sothentic summary of useful intelligence, that is anywhere afforded. Hoping to "make each day a critic on the last," and print a better and better paper from year to year, as our means are steadily enlarged through the generous seeperation of our many well-wishers, we solicit and shall labor to deserve a continuance of public favor.

TO CLUBS—Semi-B'eckly, two copies for $5, five for $11 25, ten copies to one address for $20; and any larger number at the latter rate. For a club of twenty, an extra copy will be sent. For a club of forty, we send THE DAILY TREETING.

"Such a work as this of Martin's every lover of Natural History ought to possess."

[From The Auburn Daily Advertiser.]

"It is just such a book as is needed, and must, we are confident, obtain a very wide circulation."

[From The Boston Transcript.]

"The book is eleganily printed, and the fillustrations are admirable. We are a quantited with no book on the subject which condenses so much classified knowledge of the science in a small a space.

[From The Rochester Union & Advertiser.]

"This is a really heautiful book, made attractive by its colored engravings, and it is as valuable for its matter as for its general appearance. It is a rare and vanuable book, one of the best that has appeared this yeer."

"The pion of the work covers the whole field of what is known as Natural History, and the knowledge possessed in all branches of the science is given in a lucid and thoroughly systematic form."

MISCELLANEOUS.

pation, and other disorders of the boweis, as well as result and uterire affections. Diseases of the heart are very frequently eitended with Headches | Anzenha and plethors are also affections which frequently occasion headcoke. Idiopathic Headche is also very common, being usually distinguished by the name of nervous headcacke, sometimes couring on suddently in state of apparently sound health, and prostrating at once the mental and physical energies, and in other instances to come or slowly, heralded by depression of spirits or accretity of temper in most instances the pain is in the front of the head, over one or both cyes, and sometimes provoking vomiting; under the class may also be named Neuralgia.

For the treatment of either class of Headcacke, the Cephalic Pills have been found a sure and acfe remedy, reliaving the most acute pains in a few minutes, and by its subtle power eradicating the diseases of which Headcacke is the unerring index.

CONSTIPATION OR COSTAVENESS.

No one of the "many lils neah is herr to" is so prevalent, so little understood, and so much neglected, as Costiveness. Obes originating in carciecences, or sedentary habits, it is regarded as elight disorder of too littleconsequence to eachie against, while in reality it is the precursor and companion of many of the meet fetal and dangerous diseases, and anless early exclused it will bring the sufferer to an untimely grave. Among the lighter ovide of which costiveness is the usual strendant are liceascade, Cotis, Rheumatism, Fool Breath, Piles, and others of hite nature, while a long train of frightful diseases such as Malignant Fevers, Abcesses, Dysentery, Diarrhea, Dysepsis, Apopleay, Epilepy, Paralysis, Hysteria, hypochondriasis, Melanchely, and Insently first indicate their presence in the system by this alarming symptom. Not unfrequently the diseases named originate in Constipation, but take on an independent existence unless the case is exadicated in an early stage. From all these considerations is follows that the disorder should receive immediate attention whenever it occurs, and no person should neglect to get a least destroy this dangerous foe to buman life.
